DISTILLERS OF

Pure Bourbon Whisky,

AT

Berryville, near Cynthiana, Ky.

march 1-11

1869. 1869.

Spring!

How it should be gotten up.

The following from the Kentucky

Freemason, has been handed in, with the request that we publish:

The "Cynthiana Democrat," which claims to be the "Organ of the Bourbon Whisky trade," proposes a

"Whisky Fair"—a month or so before the beginning of the next distilling season. And this, says the Democrat, is "a move in the right direction, in the right time, and at the right place."

If the fair is held, let there be premiums offered the best (?) aged drinkers. Let the mothers of the boys be present, and, also, the haggard wives, and the broken-hearted daughters of the old toppers. They will take a mournful interest in the contest. Let the Judges be the bar-keepers, who have enticed the one class to their cups and encouraged the other to perseverance in dissipation. When they have decided upon the successful candidate for dram drinking honors, let them, if they can, congratulate the weeping mother, and the pale and sorrowing wife and the daughters in whose hearts hope has died.

Let the young fellow, with his blue ribbon flying, go reeling round the ring for the cheers of the bloated spectators while the band plays

"Johnny fill up the Bowl."

Then fill the successful old toper

with whisky—until his eyes glare with the lightning, with which he shocks his home and his slinking hearts—until his fist is clenched and strikes, as it often does, those whom,

of all others, he ought to protect—

until his mouth pours forth curses

like a storm-cloud does, with the advertisements of the hell that burns

in his breast, and when the accomplished beast is thus at the height of his debauch, with blue streamer flying, and the premium bottle of whisky under his arm, let him stagger

around the arena for the delectation

of the crowd—while the band plays and the delighted spectators join in the chorus of the drinking song in Lucretia Borgia.

"It is better to laugh than to sighing."

While old Time's moments are flying."

The spectator will be apt to see that there is poison in the cup.

Before the fair comes off send out the illustrated catalogue. We will suggest some designs. Paint a home, once a miniature paradise, riddled of its sweetness, and now the haunt of wretchedness; contrast the blooming bride, as she stood at the hymeneal

altar, with the wan and wasted woman, hugging to her heart a babe

that has been chilled by the cruelty

of a perjured, drunken husband; paint

an empty larder, a scanty

wardrobe, and a fireless hearth;

paint, if you can, the misery of that abused wife, as she trembles as she hears the unsteady steps of her approaching husband; open the door

—see the afflicted woman crouching in the corner, and wailing off the drunken blows, that else would fall

on her child; at length paint Death

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, MAY 6, 1869.

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

Democratic, Right or wrong.

Imagine his response—"Gentlemen, I depreciate the distinguished honor you have deferred upon us,

(hiccup) on this occasion. (Loud cries—intermingled with oaths—of

"let us take a drink.") Fellow citizens: We are organically affected,

as you seem to be, and we'll adjourn

to the grocery, where we will sing:

Bring me, boys, a flowing bowl,
Deep and spacious as the sea;
Then shall every noble soul
Drink and fathom it with me.

While we revel in delight,
Ever to part would be a sin
And since care is put to flight,
Drink and fill the bowl again."

The next morning the "organ" will be "played out."

When Do Great Men Marry?

Women, of course. But they show the same diversity of taste that is seen in the lower ranks, and on the whole, make worse mistakes. They however, generally show the same sense in choosing their wives that they show in managing other people's affairs, whether it be good or bad.

Robert Burns married a farm girl with whom he fell in love while they worked together in the plow field.

He, too, was irregular in his life, and committed the most serious mistakes

in conducting his domestic affairs.

Milton married the daughter of a country squire, but lived with her but a short time. He was an austere, exacting, literary recluse; while she was a rosy, rumping country lass

that could not endure the restraint imposed upon her, so they separated.

Subsequently, however, she returned,

and they lived tolerably happy.

Queen Victoria and Prince Alber-

were cousins, and about the only example in the long line of English monarchs wherein the marital vows were sacredly observed, and sincere affection existed.

Shakespeare loved and wed a farmer's daughter. She was faithful to her vows, but we could hardly say the same of the great bard himself. Like most of the great poets,

he showed too little discrimination in bestowing his affection on the other sex.

Byron married Miss Milbank to get money to pay his debts. It turned out a bad shift.

Benjamin Franklin married the girl who stood in her father's door and laughed at him as he wandered through the streets of Philadelphia,

with rolls of bread under his arms

and his pockets filled with dirty

LOCAL MATTER.

Our people have commenced shearing sheep.

A Telegraph Office has been opened and established at Shawhan's Station, on the K. C. R. R.

The Republican party hold a Convention in Lexington on the 27th of this month.

On Monday Morning last, Mrs. John Bruce, died. She was a very estimable lady.

An infant of Jacob Deshler, died on Monday.

Circuit Court commenced its May Term last Monday, in this city. Much business on hand.

Apply "Barrett's" and look young.

Elder R. M. Gano will preach regularly every first Lord's day afternoon, of each month, at the Christian church, in Ruddle's Mills.

The best Call Boot ever brought to Cynthiana, is at A. Williamson's.

D. A. Givens is in receipt of his Spring Stock of Goods, which are quite handsome, and offered at unusually low prices.—31.

The remains of Bishop Forsythe were taken from the Vault, in the old Cemetery, last Thursday, and interred in the new Cemetery.

The Editor of the Clark County Democrat, says that several dogs have been killed in that county with symptoms of Hydrophobia.

On Thursday last Mr. John Melvaine, who resides near Shawhan's Station, lost a very fine brood mare. She was one highly prized as she once belonged to his father.

Considerable excitement has been created in Covington, Ky., on account of the removal of the Post Office by J. R. Grant, from the central position of the city.

James M. Campbell, the U. S. Marshall during the war, and who was the principal witness for the government in the Federal Court against Thos. Read and others, has disappeared.

Mr. John S. Nixon, Collector, and Capt. Geo. M. M. Linn, Assessor of Internal revenue of the 6th District, entered upon the discharge of their duties last Saturday, May the 1st.

IMPROVEMENT.—We are pleased to notice that Eveleth, Shannon and Turley have laid a new brick pavement in front of their new business houses, on Main Street. They will excuse us for saying that it has long been needed.

"Barrett's" improves the appearance.

The people of Pendleton county held a turnpike meeting at Callinsville last Saturday. They propose to build a pike from Colemansville in this county, to Independence in Kenton county.

President Grant says: "Let us have peace." A short time since two men dressed in Federal uniform murdered a Judge in Texas. Grant's soldier's may understand him differently from others. He will have peace or its opposite.

Mr. George Thomas, of Scott county, was in Cynthiana last Saturday. He informs us that the farmers of Scott are behind in the farming business very much, in his section.

A negro woman in the employment of Captain Abe Lair, of Lair's Station, attempted recently to destroy her child, which was only a few weeks old. Her fiendishness was discovered, and she was severely reprimanded.

If you want a good cheap Hat, get it from A. Williamson.

A HIGH SCHOOL IN CYNTHIANA.—We are pleased to learn that our excellent young friend, Mr. Frank Smith, (one of the faithful,) will open a High School, for young men and boys, in Cynthiana, about the 1st of August. Mr. Smith is one of the best qualified teachers in this county. He has been engaged in teaching, near Lair's Station, ever since the beginning of peace, and has given much satisfaction. He is a worthy young man, and will make an estimable citizen.

The following notice was written by our excellent and most worthy friend, Mr. John Kay, (formerly of Fayette county, Ky.), the energetic and able Editor of "The Sales," a weekly paper published in St. Louis, for the benefit of speculators, and traders who buy and sell in that market. In this paper is published all the sales in real estate, transactions in provisions, merchandise, &c., and goods business men should not be without it.

AN EDITOR CAPTURED.—Our sanctum was made holy on Friday last by the tread of a bran new wife, who presented to us her prisoner, Mr. A. J. Morey, editor of the Cynthiana (Ky.) News. Mr. Morey seemed to bear his captivity as easily as if he had surrendered on purpose, and not because he could not help it. His really handsome face doubtless induced something more than the usual effort made in securing a husband. Yet the charming beauty of the captor, the witchery of whose eyes would turn a true patriot into a double traitor, made the surrender an easy matter, and forced our friend into a lucky and agreeable captivity. The two have our wishes for all that is good on earth, and as new adventures in the path of married life, we congratulate them on the bright and happy present, and hope the future will crowd their way with perpetual joy and gladness. Good-bye, Dora.

The finest Lasting Gaiter—beats anything ever seen in Cynthiana—is at A. Williamson's.

Mr. Smythson, of Oddville, called at the News Office, last week, and informed us that his wife had raised from four hens sixty three chickens, all of which were black as crows. He says he is no Black Republican and don't intend to continue in possession of such stock. Mr. S. would doubtless receive an office from Grant if he were to send them to him, that he might feed his nigger representatives with meat to suit their color.

CLAYVILLE PRECINCT, May 4th, 1869.

MR. MOREY: As the time is approaching when the people of Harrison will be called upon to make a selection of their representative in the next Legislature, many of our best citizens have freely mentioned the name of one the most substantial men in the county as a most suitable person for that position. We refer to Dr. N. C. Dille, a man who has never sought or held an office within the gift of the people; but we avail ourselves of this opportunity to say that if he will accept the position, he will receive the cordial and united support of many voters, who are anxious that he would consent to serve them as their representative—convinced, as we are, that he is second to no man in the county in those qualifications which should distinguish the representative of the people.

MANY VOTERS.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," as the young ladies say of A. Williamson's "Kentucky Heels." They please grave and gay. Come one come all.

The people of Madison, Clark, and Bourbon counties, are discussing the propriety of building a railroad from Paris to Richmond. We have only one objection to this project, and that is, that it should run beyond Richmond to the mountains of Coal and Iron of Kentucky. The people of Kentucky need coal, and it will be a great piece of folly to expect the sympathy of the people unless a road be made looking to that great interest.

"Barrett's" produces natural change.

Last Thursday night two negroes of this city, who were in love with the same wench, quarrelled, and one of them struck the other over the head with a stick, when by way of retaliation the insulted darky commenced butchering his opponent in a most sanguinary manner. The pugnacious nigger left his friend the butcher quickly, but fainted from loss of blood. After he recovered his consciousness, he had his wounds dressed and is now considered out of danger. "The colored troops fought bravely."

We call the attention of the young and pleasure loving people to the fact that there will be a grand Picnic and Ball, at the Blue Lick Springs, on May the 15th. To all whose health is effected, by disease or the shafts of Cupid, we say go and be cured. The managers promise a day of enjoyment to all, as far as music and refreshments will go to make life enjoyable. Young men, now is the accepted time, see that it go not unimproved.

No poisonous drugs in "Barrett's."

Col. Worley, has withdrawn from the Southern Hotel, and we understand he intend to devote himself entirely to the auctioneering business. In this latter business, as well as in Hotel keeping Colonel Worley has but few equals. We wish him great success.

A. Williamson's "Kentucky Heels" are beautiful enough for a hour to wear.

PARIS ITEMS.—We made a visit to the capital of all the Bourbons last Monday, the first for many months—and found most of its inhabitants, (we mean the male portion,) with clean faces, clean shirts, and standing collars. They all looked as smiling and as bright as the morning sun; but we have seen them with more greenbacks.

We were cordially saluted by our good looking young friend Thos. H. Lewis, who held a small box in his hand, which contained two polecats, neither of which measured more than two inches in length. He said that Dr. Morrow gave them to him. Chandler and Gilman are building a splendid Livery Stable opposite the Bourbon House.

A new Bank has just been opened in the building heretofore occupied as the "Fox House," called the "Citizen's Bank." Messrs. C. S. Brent, and B. F. Pullen are the Proprietors. It looks well.

Ford & Osborn have opened an extensive Queensware House, in the establishment formerly owned by Garrett, Spears & Co. They keep a fine assortment.

Our friend Horace Miller is before the people of that county for the Legislature. He is a good Democrat.

For a tiptop cheap shoe for men and boys and women, go to A. Williamson's. The sign of the big boot is the place.

DEATH FROM SCALDING.—Mr. Wm. O. Hutchison who has been engaged in the distillery of Ford and Hutchison, near Paris, was stirring up hot mash in a vat, on Friday the 22d ult., when the tressel work over the vat gave way, and he was precipitated into it. His person was badly scalded from the middle of his stomach down. He was a young man of indomitable will, and refused to be convinced that he would die. Notwithstanding the fact that his sufferings were indescribable and dissolution certain, he refused to have his mother notified of his condition, fearing as she was a weakly woman, that she would not be able to withstand a shock so severe. He died on Sunday morning, May 2d, and his body was brought to this city by Mr. N. J. Heary, and carried to the western portion of our county, where his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Hutchison lives, and where he was born and raised. He was 19 years of age; an industrious, sober, honest boy, and assisted in sustaining his aged parent.

"Barrett's" Reliable Hair Restorative.

The life of the poorest inhabitant of Cynthiana is ten thousand times more valuable than all the worthless curs, and snapping terriers, in town.

Hydrophobia is the cry from all parts of the county; and very stringent dog laws are being enacted by municipalities to protect the inhabitants from this dreadful and incurable disease. In Cynthiana, the case is different. One day the dogs have a muzz'e on, and the next it is off; some have a good wire-muzzle on, and others have a common leather strap around the mouth, which is no protection at all from their bite. It is the duty of the City authorities to protect its inhabitants, and if they fail to do so, then the citizens ought to exterminate them the best way they can, and a little strychnine in a peace of fresh meat the size of the end of your thumb will effectually do it.

Mothers, don't fail to buy your little chicks shoes at A. Williamson's. They are very pretty, indeed.

We are informed that the Temperance picnic near Millersburg is to be a grand affair. Preparations are being made to entertain a large crowd. The most celebrated Lecturers are to speak on the occasion, including Howard A. M. Henderson, (whose article on "The Whisky Fair" we publish on first page,) of the Kentucky Freemason, Sept. T. Wall, and R. S. Williams, Assistant Editor of the True Kentuckian, the latter of whom will read an Address and Poem, designed for the occasion. John B. Gough, the great Temperance Lecturer, is expected to be present and deliver an oration.

A Cheap Light for All. We called in at H. S. Shannon & Co's establishment, and was very much pleased with their new and improved gasoline Light, for Stores, Street-Lamps, and Dwelling Houses. The Lamps for Family use are really beautiful in design and finish, and an ornament to any Parlor in the land. The cheapness of the Gasoline makes it the most economical light ever invented. Five cents worth of the Gasoline will burn fourteen hours steady burning. H. S. Shannon & Co. have a few of the Lamp left for sale; call and see them, and buy one if you want to save money.

Our Fur Traders and Trappers, in fitting out here, find Ayer's medicines one of their most profitable articles of traffic. Around Slave Lake and the wild regions of the north the Indians know their uses and have an abiding faith in them. They say: "Ayer—great medicine—cure sick man," and his remedies for the diseases from which they suffer will often bring forth their stock of skins even quicker than wampum, rum, or tobacco. Savages are not fools if they are unsophisticated in some of the arts of civilization.—Montreal Pilot.

All those indebted to Rhorer Bros, will please call and settle, as we wish to close our business by the 15th of May.

RHORER BROS.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday evening, in Bourbon county, at the residence of the bride's father, by Elder R. M. Gano, Mr. L. N. Kendall, of Grant county, to Miss Gabriella B., daughter of B. T. Shropshire.

At the residence of the bride's foster-mother, Mrs. Dr. Joel Ford, near this city, by the Rev. Mr. Wightman, Wm. Parrish, to Miss Mollie, daughter of Wm. Redman, all this city. Attendants, D. W. Juet, Miss Mattie, Kingston, David Snyder, and Miss Mattie Roberts.

A brighter or fairer couple it has not been our pleasure to see united in the bonds matrimony for many days. The modest beauty of the blushing bride, and the manly bearing of the bridegroom, gave assurance to the invited guest that each was happy in the others love. May they ever be as happy as they were last Tuesday. After they had feasted sumptuously, they departed on the evening train for Farmersburg, Ind.

Religious Notices.

The Lord willing I will preach next Sunday night on the conversion of the Philippians, and will review the sermon preached last Sunday night, at the Methodist church, by Elder C. P. Miller. All who heard Mr. Miller are especially invited to be present.

There will be a series of religious services in the Presbyterian church, beginning Thursday evening previous to the 2d Sabbath in May, to be conducted by the Rev. Rutherford Douglass.

Dedication.

The dedication of the new Meeting House of the Christian Church in this city will take place the 4th Lord'sday in May, services to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. The dedication sermon will be preached by Elder P. B. Wiles, of Covington. The Sunday School will meet at 3 o'clock, P. M. The meeting will be continued. All seats free. All are invited to attend.

On Saturday before the 2d Lord'sday in May, at 3 o'clock, there will be a business meeting of the Church in the new house, at which every member of the Church, both male and female, is earnestly requested to be present.

The Building Committee will then make their report, and matters of vital importance to the Church, in which every member is interested, will be presented for consideration.

FOR SALE.

A FINE

BLUE GRASS FARM!

Having determined to sell my Farm I now offer for sale 100 acres of good land, 7 1/2 miles from Cynthiana, and 1 1/2 miles from Oddville, in a good neighborhood, convenient to schools, churches, store and mills. There is on the Farm a fine (newly new) two story frame house, with four rooms and all, with two rooms and good porch; also, a fine Barn, shed all around, with room sufficient to hold and feed 100 head of horses or mules; with smoke house, negro house, carriage house, spring house, ice house, ware house, store house, mill house, and a good copper still house, with copper sufficient to mash 12 tubs, or 24 bushels, per day, now in complete order, and ready to run at any day, under the late orders or ruling, having all the pipe painted, and everything ready to work. Also good cribs.

There is on the Farm a fine apple orchard of the finest grafted fruit in Kentucky; also peaches, pears, cherries, plums, gooseberries, currants, raspberries, blackberries, and also about one acre of fine strawberry berries. Also, a very fine sugar orchard. About 35 acres is in cultivation or ploughed land, the balance is finely set in blue grass.

Any person wishing to engage in a small farming business, or to graze stock, or sell goods, or carry on a distillery business could not do better than to call and examine this Farm before purchasing elsewhere, or if any person should wish to erect a steam distillery, could not do better than to buy this Farm, as there is one of the finest old-flowing springs in Kentucky, close to the distillery, that would make 500 bushels per day, two miles of a good pike, and a probability of a pike will be run by the house, and the road is good to the pike at present.

Considering all the advantages, it is a rare opportunity to get a bargain. Any person wishing to purchase had better apply to the undersigned immediately, or to Mr. D. W. Whitaker, who will give all the information desired.

Price, 30 dollars per acre, without the distillery apparatus, but will sell the same at a fair price if the purchaser should want it.
